

TANTRIS EXECUTIVE CHEF BENJAMIN CHMURA TAKES OVER THE KITCHEN AT THE INTERCONTINENTAL MALDIVES MAAMUNAGAU RESORT

January 2025: From 14 to 19 February 2025, the InterContinental Maldives Maamunagau Resort will be all about top cuisine. Benjamin Chmura, head chef of the world-famous Munich restaurant Tantris Maison Culinaire, will bring his culinary art to the Maldives exclusively for one week. This unique cooperation promises an incomparable combination of masterful culinary art and the idyllic tropical landscape of the resort.

For this special event, Benjamin Chmura has created an exclusive menu that bears his unmistakable signature - a successful fusion of tradition and modernity. He draws inspiration from his French influences as well as international influences. Particularly noteworthy is the use of fresh fish, which reflects the flavors of the region and is artfully prepared to perfection. This menu, which includes local seafood and lobster, combines high-quality ingredients, refined preparation techniques and artistic presentation to create an unforgettable culinary experience. Guests can look forward to an indulgent journey that will tantalize all the senses and showcase the chef's exceptional skills in every nuance.

"I'm looking forward to working with fresh, regional ingredients in the Maldives - just like we do at Tantris. I am particularly excited about preparing fish and seafood from the Indian Ocean and refining it with my personal signature," says Benjamin Chmura, Executive Chef of Tantris Maison Culinaire.

This gourmet experience at the InterContinental Maldives Maamunagau Resort is far more than a celebration of haute cuisine - it represents the resort's commitment to offering its guests exceptional experiences that go far beyond the usual level of luxury. Whether at an exclusive dinner event or through the opportunity to experience one of the world's leading chefs up close, this week will be an unforgettable highlight for gourmet lovers from all over the world.
